

Modis

Documento Sin título

descargar pdf

Modis is a highly dynamic, speed-proportional metering system for controlling the flow rate of single component adhesive applications in the automotive industry, as well as in the automotive supply industry.

Modis allows operators the opportunity to cover a wide range of flow rates with just four different construction sizes.